It is possible to unload your vehicle from immediately outside the hall, though all vehicles must be removed to the car park as soon as unloading is completed. - Once a booking is taken, either verbally on the telephone or with a booking form sent through the post, Hyson Fairs will expect you to pay for the stand if less than fourteen days notice is given for non attendance. - Bookings will not be accepted without payment. Cheques to be dated 14th November 2020, made out to "Bloodwise", and included with the booking-form.
